📅 Ongoing 📍 Lac2

- Learned different technologies and methodologies like agile , implemented scrum rules while practicing Agile software development
- Realized a Facial recognition app named Facey that allows users to sign up and sign in using Microsoft cognitive services
- built from scratch a product management app using Angular framework with Materialize CSS library and a Restful API with Spring
- I was fascinated how Node is easy for newcomers and scalable for building big Rest API's. so learning it was a must for me.
